

Training Solutions

Safety, Health and Environment for Construction Managers

Who Is This Course Designed For?

The IOSH Safety, Health & Environment for Construction Managers is for anyone who oversees or manages safety, health and environment risks associated with construction activities.

About the Course

- Duration: 4 day
- Format: Face-to-Face
- Refresher training recommended every 3 years

What Do I Do Next?

If you would like a course exclusively run for your employees, at your business premises, we would be happy to arrange this for you. Prices for a closed course are available on application.

Please call 01777 802377 or email Sarah Bartlett at sarah.bartlett@pibrm.com to discuss further or book a place on one of our open courses.

What Is Covered?

- Unique issues to be managed in construction
- Aspects of successful Health & Safety management
- Basics of the UK Law and enforcement
- The principles of good general management of site, workers & contractors
- PPE/RPE requirements and use of permits to work
- Typical signage and its significance
- A range of local and global environmental impacts
- Site requirements of welfare of site worker
- Hazards and controls of slips, trips and falls
- Key elements of setting out a construction site
- Legal and procedural issues associated with the management of lifting operations
- Control and management of excavation work
- Key issues and controls associated with working at height
- Reporting of accidents and different types of waste

01777 861861

info@pibrm.com

pib-riskmanagement.co.uk

f @ in t Follow us