Traffic Marshal / Banksman Training

Who Is This Course Designed For?

This is a half day course for people responsible for the movement of plant and vehicles (including reversing operations).

An in-house course where you will learn how to prepare for vehicle movement and guidance, communication, plant hazards and ground conditions, work area layout and positioning.

The course requires the relevant plant or vehicle supplied by the client with a competent trained operative to undertake the practical element in a safe segregated area where the course is held.

About the Course

- > Duration: Half day
- > Format: Face-to-Face on site training
- > Refresher training recommended every 3 years
